APPENDIX #4: HIST100 COURSE SCHEDULE

#4

Wk	Date	Lecture	Seminar	Notes
MICHAELMAS TERM
A. CORE MODULE
MEDIEVAL BLOCK
1	7 OCT	The emergence of late antiquity Dr Alex Metcalfe	The emergence of Late Antiquity
2	14 OCT	Religion and society in the medieval West Dr Paul Hayward	Making Christians in the Carolingian Empire, c790–810
3	21 OCT	Identity, self and society in the Middle Ages Prof A Jotischky	Identity and Ethnicity in the Middle Ages
4	28 OCT	Kingship and government in the Middle Ages Dr Paul Hayward	Three visions of good kingship
5	4 NOV	War and peace—conflict and conflict resolution in the Middle Ages Dr Paul Hayward	Feuding, Religion and Peace-Making in Eleventh-Century Flanders	Bibliography exercise
EARLY-MODERN BLOCK
6	11 NOV	From Medieval to Modern: plain lives in an era of change Prof A Winchester	Mortality Crises: disease or famine?
7	18 NOV	Literacy, print, and ordinary women and Men Prof N Tadmor	England spoiled: England rebuilt?
8	25 NOV	State formation: national and local Dr Sarah Barber	Settling America: old worlds and new'	Essay 1
9	2 DEC	Overseas expansion: from Columbus to Penn Dr Sarah Barber	Cultures of everyday life
10	9 DEC	Changing Ideas: re-arranging the Universe Dr Stephen Pumfrey	The Pre-modern model of the world

APPENDIX #4: HIST100 COURSE SCHEDULE

LENT TERM

MODERN BLOCK

11	13 JAN	What is 'modern' about modern history? Prof A Kallis & Dr John Strachan	Revolution in France and Haiti
12	20 JAN	Modern work Dr Tim Hickman & Dr James Taylor	Enlightening the Modern Worker
13	27 JAN	The modern city and governance Prof A Kallis & Dr John Strachan	Modern city as utopia and dystopia
14	3 FEB	The violent 20th Century Dr Corinna Peniston-Bird & Dr Alan Warburton	Total War?
15	10 FEB	The end of modern history? Dr John Welshman & Dr Thomas Rohkramer	Environmentalism and the challenge to the idea of progress	END OF CORE MODULE

APPENDIX #4: HIST100 COURSE SCHEDULE

B. Disputed Histories Module

16	17 FEB	Why are Histories disputed? Prof A Jotischky Careers Talk	Disputed Histories	Essay 2
17	24 FEB	(Medieval) People without history Prof A Jotischky	You are who we say you are'	Dates' block registration
18	3 MAR	"Heathenish, brutish and uncertain people": early-modern perceptions of others Dr Sarah Barber	How to recognise the 'barbarous'
19	10 MAR	Historians, the modern world and the challenge of subaltern history Dr Deborah Sutton	Sources and the Subaltern Project: 'The Prose of Counter-Insurgency'
20	17 MAR	Now history has become histories Prof A Jotischky, Dr Sarah Barber, Dr Deborah Sutton	New histories and new sources	END OF MODULE

C. 'Dates' Module

21	Lecture		Essay 3
22	Workshop (2 hrs)
23	Workshop (2 hrs)		END OF MODULE
24	Revision Lecture	Revision seminar	Gobbets exercise