

Plymouth – Loughborough
Entrepreneurship Debate

“Do entrepreneurs in a capitalist society do more harm than good?”

You are cordially invited to join the following free live debate;
however you can do this from the comfort of your arm chair
(and lap top as you will need to be on the internet).

Let the debate come to you!

Proposing the motion:
Loughborough Debating Society
Tom Oldfield
Harry Earl
Sam Young

Opposing the motion:
Plymouth Enterprise Society
James Holden
Nick Thiraios
Jon Holt
Francesco D'Alessio

When: Thursday 27th March

How long: The debate starts at 18:30 and will last for around 45-60 minutes.

Where: Those wishing to join should register via the Eventbrite link here. Registration will give you access to the URL for the live feed. Register and log on early to get the best seat in the house. We can provide video links to the first few logging on; those who log on after this will only have the ability to view – but not be seen by the debate teams and wider community.

Who is this event for: This debate will bring together two debating teams as well as an audience from across the UK enterprise education community.

To set the scene everybody should watch the YouTube Debate context video prior to the start of the debate.
