

Improving access to Higher Education for disabled students

Learning support staff and disability advisors' contact details

This resource is for:

- disabled learners or learners on the Special Education Needs (SEN) register and their parents or guardians;
- all staff providing information about post 16 educational opportunities.

The named contacts will be able to answer questions about:

- the range of learning support facilities and support services available at their institution
- arranging a visit to check things are suitable,
- how these services are organised, funded and any assessments that may be necessary to make sure support is available from the start of the course.
