The Power of Sensory Reminiscence - unlocking creativity within each person
by Jimmy O’Donnell
I take people on a brief journey into the past using old objects, photos, film clips, music and conversation.
But reminiscence, at its best, is not just looking at the past.
The challenge, is to make a difference in the present and the future.
We use our 5 senses to engage with the world.
This Identity Card must be carefully preserved. You may mail it under special all residential emergency for important purposes. You must not lose it or allow it to be stolen. It should be surrendered to the nearest police station in the event of damage or loss to the police station. The Identity Card is not a guarantee of identity or any legal right to accommodation.

2. You may have to show your Identity Card to persons who are entitled to ask to see it for any reason.

3. You must not allow your Identity Card to pass into the hands of unscrupulous persons or authorities. Every person found guilty of doing so shall be prosecuted for the theft of the Identity Card. The Identity Card is not a guarantee of identity or any legal right to accommodation.

4. Anyone finding this Card must hold it until the nearest police station or the nearest police station to its place of discovery.

5. On account of the loss of the above person...

6. On account of the loss of the above person...

7. On account of the loss of the above person...

8. On account of the loss of the above person...

9. On account of the loss of the above person...

10. On account of the loss of the above person...
Dementia & the Imagination

1968

2017
Row the boat. Row the boat. Where will we land?
O’er in Kincasslagh, on the bonnie white strand.
“Grandad, you used to sing that song to me when I was little.”

Eva, reminiscing, aged 3!
Remembering through hearing and singing old songs
FACT:
One of the ONLY activities that activates, stimulates and uses the ENTIRE brain is MUSIC.

David Avocado Wolfe
Alive Inside - a documentary about the evocative Power of Music
Unlocking a room in the Palace of Memories of the Mind and Heart
An antique Music box. Tom O’Connor says ..... “Name that tune”
The Challenge - Valuing people; their lives and stories