Joaquín is currently Professor of Psychology at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, (UAB), and Vice-dean of postgraduates students at UAB.

His research covers a wide range of issues related to palliative care, including suffering, emotional distress, the patient's and family's emotional reaction / adaptation process, spiritual aspects, caregiver overload, bereavement, resilience and emotional intelligence and the development and adaptation of various scales to measure these constructs.