Assistant Professor Harry Yi-Jui Wu

Negotiating end-of-life care between traditional and modern healthcare: Coastal Chinese' perspective

4pm, 13th February 2018
Lecture Theatre 4, Lancaster University Management School

Harry Yi-Jui Wu is Assistant Professor in Medical Humanities at the Medical Ethics and Humanities Unit, Li Ka Shing Faculty of Medicine, University of Hong Kong.

Dr. Wu's research work includes the history of medicine and medical humanities. He is especially interested in agenda related to mental health, hazard exposure and end-of-life care.

International Observatory on End of Life Care Research Seminar

http://www.lancaster.ac.uk/ioelc/