

Lancaster University
Management School

Economics Taster Day
Wednesday 24th June, The Work Foundation, London
10.30am – 2.45pm

Time	Activity
10.30am	Registration and Introduction – An overview of LUMS and programme of the day Dr Emanuele Bracco (Economics Lecturer and Admissions Tutor) & Rebecca Heron (Undergraduate Recruitment & Operations Manager, LUMS)
11.00am	The value of a degree – An Economist’s perspective on applying to university Dr Emanuele Bracco
11.45am	Workshop – Student Life: Life and study at Lancaster as an Economics student (Student Ambassadors and Theo Lorentzos, LUMS alumni, Rolls Royce)
12:15pm	Workshop – Writing persuasive personal statements Rebecca Heron
12:45pm	Lunch Break (Please bring a packed lunch/cafes nearby)
1.30pm	Workshop - Academic Taster Session
2.00pm	Being an Economist for the Government Joe Gaytten (The Department of Communities and Local Government, Whitehall)
2.45pm	Finish – we hope you enjoyed your day!