

TRANSITIONS IN PRACTICE

Elizabeth Shove, ESRC climate change leadership fellowship
Department of Sociology, Lancaster University, LA1 4YT E.Shove@lancaster.ac.uk 01524 594610

Symposium on Climate Change and Transitions in Practice

6-7 July 2010

Bowland North Seminar Room 2

Day 1

10.00-10.30	Coffee
10.30-10.45	Introduction by Elizabeth Shove
10.45-12.30	Anthropological perspectives on practice theory and energy consumption Hal Wilhite Sharing conventions: how communities of practice can be both good and bad for sustainability – summer clothing in city offices and winter heating for the elderly Russell Hitchings Sustainable food consumption: the temporalities of eating practices Dale Southerton Discussants: Gordon Walker, Inge Ropke
12.30-12.45	Postcards from the social change climate change working party
12.45-1.30	Lunch in the Sociology Department (courtyard)
1.30-3.00	Sustainable circulation: Moving elements and practices towards a low carbon future Allison Hui Markets and communities of practice – implications for sustainability Luis Araujo, Simone Novello, Elizabeth Shove Discussants: Russell Hitchings, Niklas Woermann
3.00-3.30	Tea
3.30-5.00	The problems with practice theory Alan Warde Models of change in policy: behaviour, habit and practice Andrew Darnton Discussants: Andrew Sayer, Hal Wilhite
5.00-6.30	Dematerializing routines: the case of the paperless newspaper Mika Pantzar and Sammy Toyoki Greening everyday practices – a role for ICT Inge Røpke Discussants: Allison Hui, Gregoire Wallenborn
6.30-7.30	Wine Reception in the Sociology Department
7.30	Dinner at The Borough in Lancaster City Centre

Day 2

9.00-10.30	Building future systems of velomobility Matt Watson Cyborg cyclist: testing possible futures Julien McHardy Discussants: Simone Novello, Mika Pantzar
10.30-11.00	Coffee
11.00-12.30	Inequalities, capabilities and sustainable practices: the doings of everyday life and the doings of justice Gordon Walker Political-economic power, sustainability and well-being Andrew Sayer Discussants: Julien McHardy, Matt Watson
12.30-1.30	Floorball or swimming
1.30-2.15	Lunch in the Sociology Department (courtyard)
2.15-3.45	Extended bodies and the geometry of practice Gregoire Wallenborn The Edge of Change Ted Schatzki Alan Warde, Luis Araujo
3.45-4.15	Closing comments and postcards to the working party
6.00-	Drinks & Dinner at The Waterwitch