The Regional Heritage Centre offers a programme of study days and other events on the heritage of North West England which are all open to members of the public. These informative and stimulating events are very popular: early booking is recommended.

October 2018
- Friday 12: Upland Landscapes and World Heritage - insights from the past and prospects for the future
  Held at the Ruskin Library and Research Centre for Culture, Landscape and the Environment

November 2018
- Saturday 17: Political Radicalism and Dissent in the Early 20th Century - from suffragettes to soldiers
  All events are held at Lancaster University unless otherwise stated.

January 2019
- Saturday 19: Matters of Convenience - sanitation, public health and working class housing in the Victorian and Edwardian North West with Dr Alan Crosby

February 2019
- Saturday 2: From War to Peace, in association with the exhibition 'For the Fallen' at Lancaster City Museum
  Held at the Storey Institute, Lancaster

March 2019
- Saturday 2: 46th Annual Archaeology Forum

April 2019
- Friday 5: Lancashire 500-1500. Re-envisioning our medieval history and heritage, a collaborative event with HSLC
  Held at Whalley Abbey

May 2019
- Saturday 18: From Farm to Table via Railway and Road - feeding the towns of the North West in the 19th and 20th centuries

Full details of our booking procedure are available at www.lancaster.ac.uk/rhc

To request a paper booking form please contact rhc@lancaster.ac.uk or 01524 593770.