

2018 | Uni Strike

#WeSupportOurStaff @LancasterUni

Lancaster University & College Union presents a public, free, alternative "Teach Out" programme of workshops & lectures by University of Lancaster staff to mark the largest Higher Education strike in history.

WED.

21 Feb.

Strike posters & a Pint. Help prepare for the strike, as artists lead us in creating posters and banners, over a pint
6-10pm / 75 Church Street Bar

THU.

22 Feb.

What is a Strike Anyway?!@! Come learn about industrial action and how it can (and has!) made a difference
2-3:30pm / Gregson Centre

FRI.

23 Feb.

Alt-research Methods. Trial alternative research methods in an interactive workshop with the Lancaster Environment Centre
1-3pm / Gregson Centre

Movie: Downsizing. A social satire in which a man realises he would have a better life if he were to shrink
5:45pm / The Dukes Theatre (tickets online)

MON.

26 Feb.

Walk It Out. Meet new friends, colleagues, supervisors, students, etc. for a walking-talk about the future of Higher Ed.
12:30pm, Meeting at Pavilion Cafe, Williamson Park.

Pensions, Pay & Protest. What are pensions, how can we protect them, and why does it all matter?
2-3:30pm / Gregson Centre

TUE.

27 Feb.

Universities Inc. Sociology Prof. Bob Jessop explores the 'financialisation of universities'
2-3:30pm / Gregson Centre

WED.

28 Feb.

Women Decolonise the Curriculum. Women from across the University help us to rethink what and how we teach & learn
2-3:30pm / Gregson Centre

Music & Arguments. Heated discussion, shouting over the Clougha Mountain Bluegrass Band
9-11pm / Three Mariners Pub

UCU

University and College Union
Lancaster