

Thursday, 2 September 2010

10.00-12.00

Workshop 6:

Colonialism(s) / Re-constructing Identities and Social Relations:

Frank P. Kelderman, University of Michigan, USA:

"Early Barbados and Discourses of Trade, Acculturation, and Imperial Aspirations, 1627-1641" (Comment: Dr Sarah Barber, University of Lancaster, UK)

Jan Hüsgen, Hannover University, Germany:

"The abolition of Slavery in the Moravian Church" (Comment: Prof Hermann Wellenreuther, Universität Göttingen, Germany)

13.00-16.00

Workshop 7:

Projections and representations:

Aglaia Maretta Venters, Tulane University, USA:

"Time to Murder and Create: The Failure of the French Utopian Designs for the Atlantic World". (Comment: Prof Leslie Choquette, Assumption College, USA)

Pedro Martínez García, Bayreuth University, Germany:

"The (American) 'other' in Early Modern Europe: Travel Narratives and Alterity from the Late Middle Ages to the Age of the Discoveries" (Comment: Dr Tim Lockley, The University of Warwick, UK)

Dr Sünne Jüterzenka, Rostock University,

Germany: "Encounters in Eden: Religious representations of cultural contacts in colonial North America" (Comment: Prof Susanne Lachenicht, Universität Bayreuth, Germany)

16.00-18.00

Tour of the Neue Schloss, Bayreuth

19.00-20.00

Keynote lecture:

Prof Trevor Burnard: "Expanding the Spatial Boundaries of Early America: Accounting for the rise of Atlantic and Continental History in the Writing of Early American History"

Conference dinner (Schlosshotel Thiergarten, Bayreuth)

Friday, 3 September 2010

9.30-12.30

General wrap up

(visit of Festspielhaus 14.00)

Departure

SUMMER ACADEMY OF ATLANTIC HISTORY

29 August - 3 September 2010

Hotel Goldener Anker, Bayreuth

UNIVERSITÄT
BAYREUTH

DFG

EEASA European Early American Studies Association

REDEHJA

Réseau pour le développement européen de l'histoire de la jeune Amérique (1607-1865)

Lehrstuhl für Geschichte der Frühen Neuzeit

Prof. Dr. Susanne Lachenicht

Universität Bayreuth

Monday, 30 August 2010

9.30-11.00

Welcome

Keynote lecture:

Prof Nicholas Canny: "The Subject of Atlantic History"

11.30-13.00

Workshop 1:

International relations: Wars, Diplomacy and Imperial Competition I:

Aaron K. Slater, New York University, USA:

"Imperial Innovations: Political Culture, the Common Good, and the State at the Dawn of the British Empire, 1603-1660" (Comment: Prof Claudia Schumann, Universität Hamburg, Germany)

Amanda Joyce Snyder, Florida International University

"Piracy and Cromwell's Western Design" (Comment: Dr

David L. Smith, Selwyn College, Cambridge, UK)

14.30-16.00

Workshop 2:

Religious networks, dissent and tolerance:

Charlotte Carrington, Cambridge University, UK:

"An Atlantic Life: Reconsidering the 'Lord of Misrule,' Thomas Morton". (Comment: Dr Laurie Hemmerton, Univ.

Versailles-Saint-Quentin, France)

Susanna Christine Linsley, University of Michigan, USA:

"Contending for Unity: the Politics of Religious Toleration in Early National Charleston and New York City"

(Comment: Prof Evan Haefeli, Columbia University, New York, USA)

16.00-18.30 Tour of Rococo Opera Bayreuth, Tour of Bayreuth's town centre

Tuesday, 31 August 2010

9.00-10.00

Workshop 3:

International relations: Wars, Diplomacy and Imperial Competition II:

Justin Dellinger, The University of Texas at Arlington, USA:

"A Provisional Partnership – Ambivalent Spanish Diplomacy in the Gulf Coast Region during the American War of Independence". (Comment: Prof Lou Roper, SUNY, New Paltz, USA)

10.30-12.00

Workshop 4:

Trade and Commerce:

Huw T. David, Oxford University, UK:

"The Atlantic at Work: Britain's and South Carolina's Trading Networks" (Comment: Dr Ben Marsh, University of Stirling, UK)

José Gasch Tomas, European University Institute, Florence, Italy:

"Material Culture and Consumption of Asian Goods in the Atlantic World. The Manila Galleons from New Spain to Castile (1580-1640)" (Comment: Prof Mark Häberlein, Universität Bamberg, Germany)

13.00-16.00

Projects' workshop

16.30-21.00

Tour of Eremitage, Dinner at the Eremitage Biergarten

Wednesday, 1 September 2010

9.00-11.00

Workshop 5:

Atlantic Migrations:

Andreas Huebner, Giessen University, Germany:

"New Perspectives on Colonial Louisiana: Migration, Forced Migration, Creolization, and Slavery in Times of Global Crisis, 1720-1820" (Comment: Prof Trevor Burnard, The University of Warwick, UK)

Elodie Peyrol-Kleiber, Univ. Vincennes-Saint Denis, Université Paris VIII, France:

"The Migration of Irish Indentured Servants to 17th Century Maryland and Virginia". (Comment: Prof Nicholas Canny, NUI Galway, Ireland)

Afternoon:

Excursion with Picknick

Plassenburg, Vierzehnheiligen,
Dinner at Hartmann's brewery/ Fränkische Schweiz