Dear miss Kuhn,

Please accept my apology. I am sorry I could not make it to the G.F.T. [Glasgow Film Theatre] and the discussion, I would really have liked to have been there, but as you know I suffer from chronic asthma and Emphysema, and really do not get about very much. I think I owe you another apology, after writing my first letter, I had a telephone call, which I now think may have come from your office. I just heard television research, and as I had written about films, I thought it was another consumer research telephone call, and I had been inundated with research for "consumers" both at the door and on the telephone. So not realizing it was from your office, I was rather curt.

I now enclose one of your sheets completed to the best of my ability. My daughter had it photocopied, and I hope to hand it round to some of my neighbours, who are as old as me, and may have some different memories to pass on to you.

Yours sincerely
Sheila McWhinnie
