Dear Val,

Thank you for your very kind letter, I have to say I enjoyed my short visit to the exhibition, I would have dearly loved to stay longer, but as luck would be, it was on the same date as our wedding anniversary, and my family had arranged a meal and a night out for us, so I had to go to that.

I envy you young people now, travelling to foreign lands for conferences on the subject you love, and I feel quite proud that you quoted me on your visit, I'm sure the Fins and the Spaniards would enjoy your visit. By the way, I met Annette that day, and she is very nice – just like you. If ever you want to talk again about the “movies” - don't hesitate to call. I wish you all the success with your project, it is nice to know the memories won't die when we old ones pop off to the big cinema in the sky.

Yours Sincerely

Tom McGoran
