Dear Mr McGoran,

I hope you and your wife are both well. I was very sorry to have missed you at the SCREEN exhibition a couple of weeks ago but delighted to hear you had been there. I hope you enjoyed the event.

Here at the project office we have been busy over the past few weeks. After SCREEN, I went to a conference in Finland and hope you won't mind me saying that I quoted your observations on thirties cinema quite extensively. Everyone enjoyed hearing about your insights and experiences. Annette Kuhn, at the same time, was speaking in Spain where, again, a great deal of interest was taken in 'Cinema Culture in 1930s Britain'.

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you again for all your help with our project. Everyone here would like to send their best wishes.

With warm regards,

Yours,
