all your questions. you brought back many happy memories to me in this sad knife stabbing world. So pleased you sent me list of films & film stars I have seen all those one or two have been reshow on TV and I remembered everything about them. I enjoy old films very much even if they are black & white. My elder brothers used to treat my sister & I, I had 4 brothers & 5 sisters had to say only my young sister 7 & myself left, but have some very happy memories. also my husband passed away 1974.
I live in lovely Bungalow my Son built me left Birmingham 1987 Christmas. I was a little he too was a great actor, along with woman in love with Clark Gable also Trudy until I met my husband to be of course.

I loved San Francisco saw it over and over again also on TV. Gone with the Wind was on in Birmingham Cinema for about 2 yrs until a Bomb struck the place just left the £ heading Gone with the?
My husband was in the forces and snook home to come & see it with me, in a Cinema called "the futurist" a leading pictures house in Town. when I was in my teens the only time the cinema was open Sunday was a Hospital Sunday, it was touchy going on Sunday my dad used to say you will never go to heaven going to the pictures on Sunday but it was for a good cause. Yours most sincerely D. English

The most famous couple, apart from Fred Astaire & Ginger Rogers you failed to mention, Charles Farrell & Janet Gaynor, they made many lovely films together in the early 30's. Janet Gaynor won the first Oscar in 1928 did you know that? Hope I have given you some new research. Many old films have been seen on TV much to my pleasure, but not one of Farrell's Gaynor. I'm sure many pensioners like me would like to see them, also Al Tolson he was wonderful, I saw singing Fool several times you sent photograph of Edward G. Robinson he too was a great actor, along with William
