Dear Ms Gilmour

Several years ago you were kind enough to contact 'Cinema Culture in 1930s Britain', then based at the University of Glasgow, with some information on and memories of interwar picturegoing.

You sent an essay '“Q” here' (dated March 1992), in which you mention a screening at one of your father's cinemas of a double bill of 'Frankenstein' and 'Dracula'. I'm doing some work at the moment on the horror film in this period, and it would help me greatly if you could put an approximate date to the occasion. Would you mind also letting me have a note of your year of birth for our records.

I've enclosed a stamped addressed envelope for your convenience. I hope you are keeping well, and shall look forward to hearing from you again.

Many thanks

Yours sincerely
