6.3 CHILDREN DOING SOMETHING DANGEROUS

Examiner's task sheet

These two pictures show young children doing something dangerous. Compare and contrast them. Include the following points:

1. Why are these children's actions dangerous?
2. What should adults do so that such accidents won't happen?
3. What do you think will happen next in these situations if there is an accident?
4. What will happen next if there isn't an accident?

Prompts for the interlocutor:

1. What rules should these children learn?
2. What will the driver / the child's mother say or do?
