Discourses of Cultural China in the Globalizing Age

Edited by Doreen D. Wu

The essays in this edited volume examine the discourses of Cultural China from multidisciplinary perspectives, and show how various groups in the territory speak and write of China. The chapters here provide fresh empirical data and thought-provoking assessments of current discursive patterns in the Greater China region.

This book will be the second title in our series, Studying Multicultural Discourses, which promotes a new, multiculturalist orientation in discourse studies. The first book from the series is Discourse as Cultural Struggle, edited by Shi-xu.

Doreen Wu is an associate professor in the Department of Chinese and Bilingual Studies, the Hong Kong Polytechnic University.
