Social and Ethical Aspects of Health and Medicine (SEAHM)

Inter-disciplinary, Inter-professional Seminar Series

Monday 27th April 2015 6pm: George Fox Lecture Theatre 2
Series launch with wine reception & Seminar 1: Common Values and the Pursuit of Compassionate Care
Dr Vicky Singleton, Department of Sociology, Centre for Gender & Women’s Studies
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

Monday 11th May 2015 6pm
Seminar 2: Limitless?: Embodiment and the Social Imaginaries of Cognitive Enhancers in the Workplace
Prof Brian Bloomfield & Dr Karen Dale, Department of Organisation, Work and Technology
Lancaster Management School

Monday 15th June 2015 6pm
Seminar 3: Commercial exploitation of the human body
Prof Stephen Wilkinson, Department of Politics, Philosophy & Religion
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

Monday 6th July 2015 6pm
Seminar 4: Sensitive areas: Ethical and practical dilemmas in researching young people and sex
Dr Mark Limmer, Division of Health Research
Faculty of Health and Medicine

No seminar in August

Monday 28th September 2015 6pm
Seminar 5: The Ethical Aspects of Self-Discharge Against Medical Advice
Dr Laura Machin, Lancaster Medical School
Faculty of Health and Medicine