History: Founded in 1918, the League of Nations Union (LNU) was a membership organisation which based itself on the ideals of the League of Nations. It lobbied for an international agreement which would serve as a basis for permanent peace. The organisation coordinated campaigns and educational programmes as well as working with local branches which opened from the 1920s. The popularity of the organisation waned in the late 1930s when the international situation worsened.

The LNU also had regional branches which were established across the UK from the 1920s. The Burton-in-Lonsdale League of Nations Union branch was formed in 1935 at a time when the main organisation was in decline. A public meeting was held in the Sunday School on 11th January 1935 which passed a resolution to form the regional branch. Canon R Stowell, the parish vicar was elected the chairman and C Skeat acted as the branch secretary. In its first year, the branch enrolled 77 members.
