

Regional Heritage Centre

Department of History, Lancaster University

Cover image: Excerpt of John Speed Map of Cumberland 1610

2023/2024 Programme

The Regional Heritage Centre offers a programme of study days and special events focused on the heritage and culture of North West England which are open to members of the public. These informative and stimulating events are very popular so early booking is recommended.

Saturday 18 November Manuscripts and Medieval Life: the Great Cowcher Book of the Duchy of Lancaster. Join us for this study day following an innovative light display based on the manuscript's extraordinary art work featured in Light Up Lancaster.
To be held at Lancaster Castle

Saturday 2 December Local History Fair featuring history and heritage groups from across the North West.
To be held at the Friends' Meeting House Lancaster

Saturday 10 February Medieval Towns & Town Life in North West England. A study day with Dr Alan Crosby (British Association for Local History). To be held at Lancaster University

Saturday 2 March 51st Annual Archaeology Forum. A study day looking at archaeological developments in our region.
To be held at Lancaster University

Friday 19 April (1-3pm) Local Landmarks, Global Stories: the 'glocal' Lancaster history tour. Join the RHC Co-Director, Dr Christopher Donaldson, and Dr Sunita Abraham (Lancaster University) for a unique tour of Lancaster's past.
Around Lancaster City Centre

Saturday 18 May Isle of Man: Maritime Matters. Join us for this study day exploring the maritime history and heritage of the IOM, featuring Allison Fox and Christopher Weeks (Manx National Heritage), Andrew Choong Han Lin (Royal Museums Greenwich) and David Kneale (Independent Researcher). To be held at Lancaster University

Saturday 1 June Carlisle Cathedral Library: Past, Present and Future. Join us for this study day, which will consider the past, present and future of a collection over 300 years in the making.
To be held at Carlisle Cathedral

For full details of all our events, booking procedures and other RHC activities please visit our website www.lancaster.ac.uk/rhc
Why not join our mailing list? Contact us on rhc@lancaster.ac.uk or call 01524 593770 (voicemail only)