Student Experience Committee
(a joint standing committee of Council and Senate)

Terms of reference

1. To inform the development, and monitor the implementation and achievement, of the University’s strategic aims and the underpinning strategies, plans and activities for the student experience with a view to maximising positive outcomes for our students, recommending to Council and Senate as appropriate.

2. To ensure the University’s provision for the student experience represents the diversity of needs for specific student groups (e.g. international, part-time, mature, distance learners, visiting, disabled, ethnic minority and students studying off campus) through identification of key considerations and provision of advice accordingly.

3. To consider and advise on University performance in relation to the broad student experience, including through reviewing survey outcomes and other indicators, and seek to identify actions for improvement, as appropriate.

4. To receive and consider relevant reports to inform the work of the Committee and identify and advise on any issues arising. (Reports may be submitted in relation to, for example: Colleges, student services, student discipline, student complaints, Estates, Students’ Union, Commercial Services).

5. To maintain oversight of the University’s student disciplinary framework and student complaints processes and ensure they remain fit-for-purpose, to approve minor changes and to recommend major changes to Senate and/or Council for approval, as appropriate.

6. In accordance with delegated authority, to approve minor policies and procedures related to the student experience (including policies and procedures concerning the Students’ Union and Colleges) and to recommend major policies and procedures to Senate and/or Council for approval, as appropriate. To monitor and report on progress with implementation of agreed policies.

7. To report to Senate and Council, as appropriate.
