

Remuneration Committee Annual Governance Statement 2022/23

Introduction

1. The University is dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of corporate governance and is satisfied that it complies with the Committee of University Chairs (CUC) Higher Education Senior Staff Remuneration Code (June 2018).
2. Senior remuneration within the University is governed by two sub-committees of University Council: the Remuneration Committee and the Strategic Reward Committee.
3. This statement refers to the Remuneration Committee, which under the delegated authority of Council has the remit for: (i) the setting and monitoring of the Vice-Chancellor's performance objectives; and (ii) the determination and scrutiny of the Vice-Chancellor's remuneration (and other terms and conditions of employment).

Post holders within the remit of Remuneration Committee

4. The only post holder that is within the remit of Remuneration Committee is the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Andy Schofield.

Policy on remuneration for post holders within the remit of Remuneration Committee

5. On an annual basis the Pro-Chancellor (Chair of Council) undertakes a robust appraisal of the Vice-Chancellor's performance and also proposes forward-looking performance objectives for the next year. A detailed report is prepared, with support from the University's Director of People and Organisational Effectiveness, as clerk to the Remuneration Committee, and is then presented to the University's Remuneration Committee along with the latest Committee of University Chairs (CUC), University and Colleges Employers Association (UCEA) and other salary/overall remuneration benchmarking information. Where appropriate, independent specialist advice is also sought from the institution's external advisors (currently the Korn Ferry Group).
6. Following a detailed discussion regarding the Vice-Chancellor's performance the Committee discussed remuneration and considered whether any amends to the overall package of remuneration is to be agreed, taking into account:
 - the overall performance of the institution;
 - the Vice-Chancellor's contribution and performance;
 - the level of additional remuneration (or cost of living increases) afforded to other parts of the University workforce;
 - sector positioning and benchmarking information.

Choice of comparator institutions/organisations

7. The Remuneration Committee draws on a variety of data sources in order to benchmark the Vice-Chancellor's salary.
 - (a) UCEA Senior Salary Survey, specifically data on Pre-92 Institutions, and Pre-92 institutions within the same institutional income band.
 - (b) CUC Survey of Vice-Chancellors' remuneration, using both full survey and selected research-intensive universities (see below).
 - (c) Other top 10 universities and comparator groups/institutions.¹

Policy on income derived from external activities

8. There is a unified policy that covers all University staff, governed by a published policy that has been approved by the relevant University committee, the Finance and General Purposes Committee, and presented to University Council.

Pay multiple of the Head of Institution to the median institution salary

9. Based on the published Office for Students (OfS) guidance and when using the two formulas prescribed:
 - (i) the Vice-Chancellor's basic salary in 2022/2023 is 6.69 times the median pay of staff, where the median pay is calculated on a full-time equivalent basis for the salaries paid by the institution to its staff, casual workers and contractors;
 - (ii) the Vice-Chancellor's total remuneration in 2022/2023 is 7.18 times the median total remuneration of staff, where the median total remuneration is calculated on a full-time equivalent basis for the total remuneration by the provider of its staff, casual workers and contractors.

It has not been possible to include agency workers² within the pay ratios due to the way in which the University systems categorise and deal with payment of these workers.

¹ Durham and Loughborough Universities and the Universities of Bath, Exeter, Surrey, Warwick and York.

² Agency includes those staff hired through an external agency which the University is invoiced periodically for and is not the direct employer of and also student hires who are engaged as part of our employability agenda through an in-house service based within the University Student and Education Services division.
