

Lancaster University Recognition Statement: Lancaster Access Programme

Additional consideration

If you successfully complete the Lancaster Access Programme, your UCAS application will receive additional consideration when you apply to Lancaster University. This is dependent on you meeting all other admissions criteria, for example interview and portfolio performance, aptitude test, subject-specific requirements and GCSE grades.

Lancaster Access Programme - alternative offers

If you are given an offer from Lancaster University, it will be a dual offer. You will receive a typical offer as well as an alternative Lancaster Access Programme offer (which will be dependent on you successfully completing the Lancaster Access Programme). Further details are provided below:

- A standard offer for the course to which you are applying plus;
- Up to 3 A level grades or equivalent below the standard entry offer or;
- Up to 2 full BTEC National Extended Diploma grades

Alternative offers for other, equivalent level 3 qualifications or access to HE courses will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Details on the qualifications accepted at Lancaster University can be found on our website: www.lancaster.ac.uk/study/undergraduate/admissions/entry-requirements-and-qualifications/uk-qualifications/

Please note: We may specify minimum grades in particular subjects depending on the course entry requirements.

Lancaster Access Programme - course exemptions

Alternative offers will not be made for the following courses through Lancaster Access Programme:

- A100 Medicine and Surgery
- A104 Medicine with a Gateway Year
- N2R4 International Business Management (Spain)

Lancaster Access Programme - other information

For courses that require an additional selection processes such as an interview, submission of a portfolio or aptitude test. Lancaster Access Programme applicants will be expected to meet these requirements before any offer is made. Some offers may be subject to Lancaster Access Programme students studying particular subjects and achieving certain grades in those subjects.

For further information

For more information about the range of courses available and typical entry requirements, please visit the Lancaster University website: <https://www.lancaster.ac.uk/study/undergraduate/>

Remember that it is important to check the individual requirements for the course that you are interested in and what this means for you.
