Sunway University is a leading not for profit private university committed to the pursuit of education through scholarship, research and enterprise. It is ranked among the top 2% of universities in Asia and rated as a 5 star institution by Quacquarelli Symonds (QS). For the 2020 rankings, the University was ranked within the 751 800 range, out of 1002 universities ranked in the QS World University Rankings. The University was also ranked among the top 150 young universities worldwide in the QS Top 50 Under 50.

In adopting a global approach, the University has established close partnerships with Lancaster University UK and Le Cordon Bleu International, which lend international qualifications to Sunway’s programmes. The University has fostered ties with Harvard, Oxford and Cambridge in bilateral exchange of expertise and research.

To date, the University has drawn more than 26,000 students from over 90 countries to its vibrant, 880,000 square feet campus. Supported by the Jeffrey Cheah Foundation, the University has invested in excess of RM400 million in its infrastructure and continues to expand its teaching and learning, and research spaces.

Psychology and Community Health is a 2 week programme that provides you an overview of mental health and practices in Malaysia. The programme includes a mix of academic seminars and lectures, experiential visits and exploration time. You will also gain insight into Malaysia culture through a tour of the capital city of Kuala Lumpur, a guided culinary journey, a hands on community service activity and also an experiential visit to places of worship. During your free days, you have the opportunity to explore other parts of Malaysia and beyond to neighbouring countries in Southeast Asia.
