The Regional Heritage Centre offers a programme of study days and other events on the heritage of North West England which are all open to members of the public. These informative and stimulating events are very popular: early booking is recommended.

For full details of all our events and other activities which are arranged through the year please visit our website www.lancaster.ac.uk/rhc Why not join our mailing list? Contact us on rhc@lancaster.ac.uk or call 01524 593770

November 2019
Saturday 30: Lancaster Canal - Past, Present and Future  a collaborative event with the Canal and River Trust to mark the bicentenary of Lancaster Canal

January 2020
Saturday 25: North West Antiquaries and the Development of Historical Writing (c. 1650-1850) at the Storey Institute, Meeting House Lane, Lancaster

February 2020
Saturday 22: The End is Nigh - aspects of death and mortality in North West England 1500-1900 with Dr Alan Crosby

March 2020
Saturday 7: 47th Annual Archaeology Forum

April 2020
Saturday 4: Dialect and Regional History - from the Vikings to the voices of modernity

May 2020
Sunday 3: Lancaster Castle in World War II A study afternoon in the Lancaster History of War Weekend, to be held in Lancaster City Centre, venue to be confirmed
Saturday 16: Uncovering Halton Mill - the last industrial site on the Lune at Halton Mill, Mill Lane, Halton, Lancaster

June 2020
Saturday 13: Refugees in the North West - from the early twentieth century to the present in association with Global Link Images courtesy of Dr Chris Donaldson and Lancaster University Photographic Unit

All events are held at Lancaster University unless otherwise stated.
Full details of our booking procedures are available at www.lancaster.ac.uk/rhc
To request a paper booking form please contact rhc@lancaster.ac.uk or 01524 593770